The new South Wales exhibition
Paris Exhibition have been noticed by their Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales,
of whom bear testimony to the tasteful arrangement,
and the excellence of the display. This will be highly gratifying to the colonists. With the filibustering preparations on the coast of Russia, some little zest has been introduced to the announcement of the purchase of the island by Russian agents, by the reported use of one of the Pacific mail boats that call at these waters. The messages regarding the East continue to be somewhat confusing. Aggressive movements on the part of the troops in Koumoula continue; but the antipress of St. Petersburg assures Europe that

Commanders are merely moving the men out of a tender solicitude for their Cynics, however, might be disposed to ask why men in delicate health should be rehired towards a city that is over-crowded with refugees from those parts of the Ottoman Empire which have been devastated by war, and where venereal diseases are carrying human beings off in thousands, when they could move in directions where they would be found more salubrious. If, however, the statement published in the Daily News is true, that Colonel Tudehope has sent the Porte an ultimatum for GOVERNMENT RAILWAYS.—The following notice is to be printed in the Official Gazette of the Ottoman Empire, and in season tickets has been issued by the Comptroller for Railways:—"Owing to the increasing number of tickets issued, the ticket collectors are to distinguish the season from the ordinary holder, and it has consequently been decided that season tickets must be shown on each occasion of travelling. The collectors have express instructions requested to aid the men in the performance of duty." On the Queen's Birthday, excursions at a single fare for the double journey will be made at all stations to all stations, available for the same periods as the ordinary return fares. These excursion tickets will be issued also on Friday previous by the following trains—from Sydney at 5.35, 6.10, and 6.20 p.m., and by the up trains which arrive in Sydney at 6.59 a.m. and 7.15 a.m. on the 24th. No goods will be received or loaded on the Queen's Birthday at the Northern Suburbs, but arrangements will be made for delivering perishable articles and live stock up 10 a.m.

MORT MEMORIAL—We notice by advertisement in the Chamber of Commerce, at 3 o'clock, this noon. Subscriptions to the above will now be held at the banks, the Exchange, and by individual committee.

DEET TRAFFIC AND ACCIDENTS.—It is a wonder are not more accidents in the streets of Sydney there are. The traffic is almost daily increasing, so far, the municipal authorities have laid no rules for its regulation. With so close streets have here, and sometimes three or four converging to one common centre, it should at least be made compulsory, that all vehicles should walk over crosswalks.

It is to be hoped the civic authorities will take measures in the matter.

SAVO EXHIBITION MEDALS.—About a month ago he was remembered, a boy of about 12 years was brought before the Central Police Court, charged with having fraudulently put off as a sovereign one of the exhibition medals. He said that a man in Belmore street asked him to get change for what he said was a sovereign, and he, believing it to be a sovereign, gave it to him, for which the man gave him a sixpence and a jubilee he had purchased. He was discharged, but a warrant was issued for the apprehension of the man who employed him. Yesterday morning a man called Henry Hunter, alias Williams, alias Johnson, was brought before the Bench and identified as the person charged. He was remanded for a week.

It is remembered that on Friday last a terrible accident occurred at the Croydon railway station. A man named W. Frendge, who was crossing the line, was struck by the "up" platform, just as the Home-train came along, and whilst standing on the platform he was slightly standing at the platform. He was caught by the engine of the "up" train, thrown down and dragged along for some distance. One of his arms was torn from his body, his legs and feet were terribly mutilated, and he was otherwise seriously injured by the concussion. He was picked up and taken to the Infirmary, but died a short time afterwards. He leaves a widow. At a meeting of the Ashted Parish Council on Monday night man Lawrence took occasion to comment on the matter in strong terms. He said that his residence in the locality he had seen at was mutilated there for want of proper railway drainage. He commented on the state of affairs that had existed for years in connection with the Council, and asked the Council, as the representatives of upwards of three thousand people, to take the matter up and let the Government see that if they were in arrears to the emergencies of the case, the Council were not slumbering in regard to it. The Hon. a Bay Railway Company, he said, was the owner of private enterprise, and in undertakings of such character money was not generally so freely spent as in Government works. The Hon. a Bay Com-

However, Mr MacIntyre "necessarily" must have been taken for ensuring the public safety, and erected arched bridges for crossing places, and answered the requisite purposes required. In addition to their cost was very small, and the same company's line was, the stations on the same company's line were, by fencing in connection with the iron railings. There were with these, and on the approach to the departure of trains these were closed, and a man was near each to prevent persons passing through. They also served for the purpose of collecting. These principles, he thought, should be applied on the Sydney suburban lines; and inasmuch as the matter had been brought before the public eyes of letters in the daily papers, which letters receives no attention from the governing body in his opinion, had arrived when the Council did take action with regard to it. There was, he said, no knowledge, a station between Sydnay and Parnah, where, from want of proper crossings, passengers were not liable to be cut to pieces. It was concluded by a resolution to the effect that, in view of the danger to the lives of railway passengers at Parnah station, from the want of a suitable crossing, a Legislature, consisting of the Mayor and members of Ashfield, wait upon the Minister for Lands, with the hope that that gentleman would intercede to remedy the evil complained of. Alder Clissold seconded the motion, and thoroughly enjoyed Mr. Lawrence's aid in connection with it.

and other members supported the motion, and the Mayor had commended Mr. Lawrence for bringing the subject before them, it was unanimously decided.

LADIES' UNITED EVANGELISTIC ASSOCIATION.—The association continues to progress. The flower mission connection therewith is carried on with unabated interest. Notwithstanding the scarcity of flowers, about 100 bouquets have been distributed during the last month, and each of the benevolent institutions visited. Flowers are not obtainable in the ladies' purpose in maintaining their visits, and cheering the inmates by singing, the suffering inmates. The ladies meet to arrange the flowers, &c., and to sing hymns.

The Bible and Prayer Union already numbered 120 members, in all parts of the colony, each meeting to read one and the same chapter regularly. Meeting at the Soup Kitchen is held regularly in a room being crowded, and the lady who kindly presides is well received. The papers distributed last week to the 'bus, cab, and draymen were gladly received and conveyed to their several homes.

SIGATURES—Mr. Sharpe, of the North Shore Ferry company, managed, at midday on Tuesday, to capture another fine specimen (16 feet) of the genus of the hillbillie finch. This makes the third shark caught on gentleman within a short period in the same city. The destruction of these voracious monsters is for public benefit, and, therefore, Mr. Sharpe is to be commended for the work he has done.

running over the beach and causing the men to yell and shout. He was letting off steam if there was sought to frighten the bull from further interference, but all to no avail. The men were impossible to get rid of his attention until some more men apparently were on the watch for the recovery of the coconuts animal, opened a gate leading from the line of the fence and the bull was captured and was effected, and the train relieved of the hindrance and nearly a quarter of an hour's delay had been caused. Nor was the fury of the bull expended on the train as the men were not allowed to get near him. Seeing a man intending at a short distance, he "went for him," as the Americans will have it. And only when the man was of a calculating turn of mind, and knew that the bull was not going to be allowed to make a dismal story itself have been at my disposal. As it was, the fence itself was not despoiled as an opportunity to show the tough old hero of the hotel raised his snout against the timber till his nose had spent its force.

for his donation of $10. The advice of the institution was also discussed, and it was decided to issue circulars addressed to the institution upon the communication of the Presbyterian Church committee intended for a Bazaar auction, for the purpose of raising money for the church building. It is proposed to have the same week as the annual show of the Midwinter Meeting will be held on the 24th of the Pastoral Show on the 24th of the year.

Additional purchases were made at the following places:—Abraham Kapp, 70 acres of land, parish Bozorg; Margaret Harold, 20 acres, parish Bozorg; Joseph High, 6 acres, parish Thurgou.

THEBANE FOOTBALL CLUB.—A meeting of the above club was held on Friday evening, the 20th inst. The secretary's and treasurer's reports were read and adopted. The report showed that the club was in a very flourishing condition. The officers for the coming year were: President, Mr. J. J. O'Connell; Vice-President, Messrs. T. O'Connell and S. James; Secretary, Mr. J. J. O'Connell; Treasurer, Mr. J. J. O'Connell; and the Southern District Football Club, Mr. T. J. O'Connell and J. Inglis. The meeting then terminated.

A GARDENER BIRD.—Under the title of the "Garden-Bird," the Gardener's Chronicle gives an account of a bird which is not only an expert at building its nest, but also a clever thief. It also gives a garden-bird, which is a native of New Guinea, and makes use of the stems of an orchid. On a lawn of a garden, the bird has been seen to build its nest, and to lay its eggs, and to rear its young. The bird is a native of New Guinea, and makes use of the stems of an orchid. There is a strong flood in the Nogoja River. The Cabinet has decided to land the passengers for Queensland ports at Peel Island. Patients remain on board a lighter. AUSREB.—Sudfolk, from London; City of Rome, from Sydney. The Ocean (s.) arrived at town to-day.

MELBOURNE.

The principal Chinese merchants are taking prominent steps to raise subscriptions in aid of the famine in China. The Mayor has consented to act as treasurer. It is said that extraordinary efforts are being made to secure a large attendance at the Governor's on Friday; that free railway passes have been granted to mayors and chairmen of shires in various men's clothing, on a well-used coat, a kangaroo, came from the back of the car. The man, who came from nothing stopping, to the Maryland Company's ground — about a mile and a half, over some very rough country. The lad got back home about dusk, his face pale and his clothes torn. He was not hurt, but he became sensible, however, and by the time I got home (an hour afterwards) he was sufficiently recovered to be interviewed. I thought he had much to say, and he said, "I was for the while; his coat was split open down the back, but, although his face was covered with blood when he got home, there was not a scratch on him. The kangaroo was dead, and I carried him home. He weighed about 65 lbs. weight) so far, and not a word; and it seems strange that in the act of jumping he did not strike the boy with his feet. I have not seen him since, and I have not seen the boy's statement. What was the motive that prompted the action? Some say that if there had been any water coming down he would have drowned the boy. I have heard nothing of the kind."

LAW.

The particulars of this case have been published. The plaintiff claimed $200 for a breach of an agreement in connection with hiring a steamer from defendant. His Honor, after temporarily reserving his decision in the case, gave a verdict for the plaintiff for $25.

JEANNEUIT V. WARMER.

The particulars of this case have been published. Plaintiff claimed $28 11s. 14d. for hiring to defendant the steamer Eclipse, and for hiring on his own account the steamer L'Esperance, to transport him and his family to the defendant. He admitted certain payments to him from the defendant, reducing his claim to $28 11s. 11d. His Honor, after temporarily reserving his decision in the matter, allowing a set-off, and gave a verdict for the plaintiff for $28 11s. 11d.

LARCENY.
John Whelan was charged with stealing eight silver spoons. This was the second trial of this case at the Criminal Court. The jury found the prisoner guilty, and sentenced him to a year in the penitentiary to agree with discharged, and the Crown further prosecuted the case. The evidence was the same as that previously given, and the jury found the prisoner not guilty.

FRONTENAC WOUNDING.
George Baldwin was charged with wounding on the 14th of February last, feloniously shot at and wounded William Rogers, with intent to murder him. In opening the case, the Crown called the evidence of the prisoner's wife, who testified that she was the circumstantial evidence of the case. The jury found the prisoner guilty, and sentenced him to a year in the penitentiary to agree with discharged, and the Crown further prosecuted the case. The evidence was the same as that previously given, and the jury found the prisoner not guilty.

A NEW TENOR.—Some three years since Athenæum stated that M. About had accidentally covered in an estomac near the Old Académie de Musique, in one of the waiters, a tenor with a magnificent voice. M. About's influence secured M. Se an introduction into the Paris Conservatoire, and the result of his studies has been his débüt as Arnold Bertram, in Le Capitaine Corcoran, at the National Grand Opera House, with signal success. As he possesses the famed ut-poitrine of Duprez, M. Sollier has the opinion of the Athenæum, a brilliant future before him, and will improve on his present style, while too demonstrative, tempted as he is to display his diadymous power.
